Please respond to the following questions with your summer staff application

1. Why did you decide to apply for a position at SAGA summer camps?
2. As a staff member, it is very important that you are able to commit to being present during the planning of camp, volunteer training nights as well as during the camp day. With the exception of a family emergency or illness, we desire all staff to be present at all times. Are there any days that you would like to request off? (examples: prom, graduation, etc). If so, please list the date and the time off work required as well as the reason for request of absence. Any time off requested that has been approved by pastoral staff must be made up.
- 3., We will be having our volunteer training dates during the week of June 22-26 during the evening. Are there any dates that you would not be able to attend this training? If so, please list the date and the reason. If you are employed, we will provide the exact date for the training as soon as possible.
4. Is there anything in your past or present life circumstances that if brought to light, could seriously hinder the effectiveness of your ministry at SAGA summer camps?

Please answer the following questions:

1. Please list your experience planning and running program activities with children and youth aged 6-14 such as games, crafts, sports, Bible lessons, skits, leading small groups or anything else that's program related.
2. Please list your experience participating in sports activities.
3. Please list your experience coaching or training a team and/or player. What principles and values were you able to instil into child and youth athletes through sport?

If you are interested in working on Administration:

1. Please list your experience related to customer service, promotional material and managing files and paperwork.

Job Descriptions for Summer Camps Staff 2020

Our desire is to live by faith, be known for love and be a voice of hope. This is especially true of those in leadership roles and staff positions. For that reason, all staff will be people who are committed to following the example of Christ and the vision of Chartwell in all they do.

Alongside working within a specific team at Saga Summer Camps, all staff will contribute to the larger summer staff team by working towards a 'one-team' culture and being available for needs related to the other teams as needed.

Saga Day Camp

Program Coordinator (two positions available)

The Day Camp Program Coordinator will be part of the Day Camp team working alongside the Day Camp Director. Together the Day Camp team will be responsible for the implementation of Saga Day Camp at Clarkson Community Church.

The Day Camp Program Coordinator will be responsible for the following:

- Developing, resourcing and implementing a fun, safe and effective program for campers
- Providing clear responsibilities to the program support staff
- Working with admin toward the ordering and purchasing of equipment for an effective program
- Overseeing the development of camper teams for weekly programming
- Providing on-the-job training, support and encouragement for volunteers at Day Camp
- Ensuring volunteers are resourced with all they need to perform their roles effectively

The Day Camp Program Coordinator will report to the Day Camp Director. It is a 10 week position, beginning the second week of June.
